

It's Baa-aaacckkk!

The M. R. Sellars / RGI Forum Returns

First off, please allow me to thank all of you folks who stepped up and offered to take over moderating the forum so that I can have time to do things like...well...write.

You will all notice that the forum has undergone some major reformatting. I have upgraded to the latest version of SMF (the forum software)...Massaged the SQL database and fed it macadamia nuts & dates until it has had its fill (don't understand it...and SQL Database that gets treated better than I do...[sigh]). In addition to that, I tried on a few different "themes" for the look. Kind of like the one that it has now, but I'm not locked into it. I'm open to suggestions. Also, you will see that most of the active threads have been moved under one heading, some of the inactive boards were deleted, and there are now new topics in place. Hopefully they will spark some more interest.

Now, in the interest of giving kudos where they are due, allow me to introduce your new admin team:

Moonfire – AKA "THAT Moonfire!"...She is your GLOBAL Moderatrix. Do not make her angry. She will hurt you. Or, at the very least you will be denied the sacred "chocolate milk"...Trust me, you don't want to be denied the sacred "chocolate milk."

Johnny_Seitz – Johnny is a very odd young man. However, he is a GLOBAL Moderator and you probably shouldn't mess with him. You see, his wit is rather sharp and he has trouble keeping it sheathed. What's worse, he now has "moderator priveleges" to back it up.

Crystal Rose – When it comes to being a MODERATOR, Crystal Rose is nowhere near as delicate as her screen name sounds. She doesn't break easily. Make her angry, however, and you will (be broken, that is).

Laylablue – Another of our lovely MODERATORS. Cross Layla and you will definitely be singing the blues.

SinGinSlezzo – MODERATOR Extraordinaire. His name doesn't start with SIN for nothing, however, I am bound by a gag order not to reveal the sin(s).

Coldie – I think the name says it all about this MODERATOR. She can be pretty cold hearted, so watch yourselves...

There are going to be a few more moderators added on in the next few days, as soon as I get all of my email sorted out, and I will add them to the above list as we go. Again, thanks for all of the support. I hope everyone continues to enjoy the forum. Tell all your friends and get them over there to sign up and chat about the RGI books!
